Dear Friends in the 13th District of Texas,

As your Representative in Congress, I am pleased to offer you this "Welcome to Washington, D.C." booklet to help you prepare for your visit to our Nation's Capital.

I have included information about many attractions in and around D.C. There are some tours my office can help arrange for you, but available space on many tours is limited, especially during the summer months and vacation times, so be sure to plan early and contact my office as far in advance as possible.

There is a lot for us all to be proud of in Washington D.C., and I hope that your visit will be an enjoyable one. If your schedule permits, please stop by my office and say hello.

Sincerely,

Welcome to Washington, D.C

WILLIAMSBURG, VIRGINIA

www.visitwilliamsburg.com/attractions.htm

About 156 miles southeast of Washington, Williamsburg serves as an excellent example of the wonderful things that can result from the past melding with the present. With one foot in the colonial seventeenth century and another firmly in the present, Williamsburg is, for good reason, one of North America's most popular destination points.

Some must-see locations include the following:

COLONIAL WILLIAMSBURG

1-800-HISTORY

www.history.org

Imagine that you crossed a bridge and stepped back through time to the eve of the American Revolution. What would you see? What would you eat? Where would you shop? Colonial Williamsburg will help to answer all of those questions and more. In a little over 300 acres and more than 500 restored and reconstructed buildings, the 4,000 member staff of historical interpreters and re-enactment specialists will recreate the eighteenth century American experience for all who visit. Colonial Williamsburg presents a unique opportunity to immerse yourself in a dynamic point in our Nation's history. The park is open daily from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Admission to the park is $39.00 for adults and $19.50 for children 6-14. Please note that the park houses an extensive collection of exhibits and real-life enactments. The staff at Colonial Williamsburg recommends that you spend a second day touring the grounds for an additional $3.00 for adults and $1.50 for children.
